

Making a Right Choice for Your Children ?

In most of the Colleges Subjects that are studied in Schools are meant to prepare students for further study in College Academics, but in real cases children often find them selves in a situation where the choice of streams and subjects are unfamiliar and has no resemblance with their future study in colleges. So, while choosing a career for your child. One should consider two important factor that decide what stream one should choose. They are aptitude in a subject and the interest involved in that subject. So the previous performances in schools can help the student decide what subject he want to be associated in his/her future study/career options.

Suppose, your child is studying 10 subjects. Give him/her ranks in a scale of 1 to 10 as 10 is the highest and 01 is the lowest on the following parameters mentioned in the below work sheet. (do not repeat). Then total the score under each subject. Find out three subjects that scores highest and decide his/her future career options from the below mentioned work sheets.
