

Career in Foot ware Designing

India is the second largest producer of foot ware in the world which has a large raw material base in leather, huge installed manufacturing capacity and skilled man power base. But not that much of professional in this field. So, one can make a career in this foot ware designing and technology which is a booming industry.

There are so many different courses provided in this subject among which certificate courses, diploma courses and graduate courses are important. A certificate course of duration 3-6 months is provided in shoe design. Foot ware finishing to the students competing 10th standard.

A one-two year Diploma Course is offered in foot ware Technology/manufacturing as under graduate courses to the students competing their 10+2 (intermediate) courses. Graduate/ Diploma holders in foot ware Technology can peruse post graduate courses in foot ware and Tech Management.

After completing the course , one can get the job offer in shoe manufacturing companies like Bata, Tata International, Liberty, Action, Woodland, Lee Copper, Dawar group, Tej Group and leading international brands out sourcing from India like Florsheim, Ecco, Hush Puppies, Marks & spencer etc.

The Institutes providing the courses in India are

- Footwear design and Development Institute, UP (www.fddiindia.com)
- Central Leather Research Institute, Chennai (www.clrim.org)
- Central Footwear training Institute, Chennai (www.cftrichennai.com)
- Central Footwear Training Institute, Agra (www.cftiagra.com)
- NIFT (www.niftindia.com)

(The author is Chief Executive & Founding Member www.OrissaJob.Com- The first Complete Regional Job & Career Portal and an Education & Career Consultant based at Bhubaneswar, can be reached at - ceo@orissaJob.Com)